

STOFANEL INVESTMENT AG PRESS RELEASE

STOFANEL INVESTMENT AG BEGINS NEW YEAR 2011 WITH CHANGE IN MANAGEMENT STRUCTURE

Berlin, February 3, 2011 – The management board of the family owned real estate company STOFANEL Investment AG with headquarters at the Pariser Platz in Berlin, has been reorganised for the company's continued successful orientation.

Ludwig Maximilian Stoffel, company founder, 50% shareholder of STOFANEL Investment AG and former CEO, is now the new Supervisory Board Chairman. The former Chief Financial Officer Ulrich Voll also joins the supervisory board of which Dr. Eugen von Lackum continues to be a member.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND AREAS OF RESPONSIBILITY

The areas of responsibility of the board are now as follows: Giovanna Stefanel-Stoffel, 50% shareholder of STOFANEL Investment AG continues, as board member, to be responsible for communication and design. The new spokesman of the management board has been named as Dr. Torsten Held, board member responsible for project development, marketing and customer management. The newly appointed board member Andreas Hambach will be responsible for finances and controlling.

In a close and trusting cooperation, the supervisory board and the board of directors will continue, together with the employees, to develop the company's core business, meanwhile consolidated, under the consistent continuation of the successful company strategy. With this restructuring the company is best positioned for its many national and international residential and commercial real estate development projects. Further building land and real estate acquisition is in planning.
